Personal Statement Essay and References:

Please attach a typed two-page personal statement essay addressing the merit qualifications below:

Indicate current college or community service (SGA, campus clubs/teams, intramurals, Phi Theta Kappa, community volunteer) as well as prior community service experience.

State your academic program and how that will affect your career goals. You must explain your commitment to succeed academically at North Country. You must answer the question of how this scholarship will benefit you, and how you intend to give back to the community after you complete your education.

Please list three references that can attest to your character, personal and academic strengths. Include at least one academic reference. Your list of references should include the person's name, phone number, email, their relationship to you, and the best time of day that can be contacted. This information should be included at the end of your typed personal statement.
