

Instructional Methods at NCCC

How the Course is Taught

Face to Face

Taught in-person for each scheduled class as per the course schedule.

Face to Face Enhanced

(Includes a zoom option)

Taught in-person for each scheduled class as per the course schedule along with a zoom option for students to participate in the class. Students get to choose whether to attend in person or live via Zoom on any given scheduled class.

WEB/100% Asynchronous Online

100% asynchronous online. All course work is completed online with due dates and timelines with no live “real-time” instruction required.

Hybrid

Courses that combine in person instruction in the classroom as per the course schedule along with online instruction (approx. 50% f2f in the classroom/50% online).

Blended/Synchronous Online

Scheduled class times are taught through zoom in real-time as per the course schedule along with online activities (approx. 50% synchronous “live Zoom”/50% online).

HyFlex courses:

offer the highest level of flexibility

Taught in-person for each scheduled class as per the course schedule, along with a live synchronous “zoom” option, and a asynchronous online option. Students can choose between any of the three options for each class to fit their schedules.
