

Please take a few minutes to review the following summary, which outlines what you should know about the Spring 2021 semester. It is also posted on our website at www.nccc.edu/spring-2021.

More details will be released in the coming weeks. Note that these plans are subject to change prior to and during the semester.

Activity	Plan
Instruction/Classes	Mostly online with very few classes (less than 3%) on campus. The first day of classes is Feb. 1.
Residence Life	The college will not offer on-campus housing for the Spring 2021 semester.
Athletics	The college has suspended all athletic competition for the Spring 2021 semester . This decision is in line with the majority of Region III colleges.
College Bookstore	The college's on-campus stores will be closed to in-person visits, but curbside pick-up will be available from Jan. 11 to Feb. 12. For more information: College Store Website: http://bookstore.nccc.edu Malone: collegestoreml@nccc.edu 518-354-5170 Saranac Lake: collegestoremain@nccc.edu 518-354-5171
Academic Supports (Tutoring/Library)	Online with limited in-person access by appointment only, following screening, testing and mask wearing/social distancing protocols.
Student Life	Online activities and engagement.
Orientation	Virtual orientation.
Spring Break	We have chosen to align our Spring 2021 schedule with the request from SUNY to not hold a formal spring break . As a result, the first day of classes has been moved from Jan. 25 to Feb. 1, and the semester will conclude as scheduled on May 13.

Gym, Pool, and Fitness Center	Closed for the semester.
Spring Break	The college expects to release more information about Spring Break as soon as possible.
Screening	Required daily each time students are on-campus.
Testing	Required prior to return to campus and as part of ongoing surveillance testing for all students who will be on-campus.
Quarantine and Isolation	Required by NYS Department of Health and county public health departments if one has been exposed or is diagnosed with COVID-19.
Uniform Sanctions	Students who violate COVID-19 safety protocols on-campus jeopardize the health and safety of our campus community. Depending on the violation, there are a range of possible sanctions which students are encouraged to be familiar with. View our COVID Conduct Policy for details.
Mandatory Pause	If there is a resurgence of the virus in our region and/or on-campus, a return to fully online operations may result.
